		Have H. d., An arread in according period pp. 10/017 612 contains related issues

Item # 1: An appeal in copending serial no. 10/017,643 contains related issues.

Item # 4: Several significant limitations in the claims under appeal were not referred to in the specification regarding page and line numbers. For example, in lines 17-21 of the SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION the electron density value being less than a true value has not been found on cited page 15, line 16, through page 16, line 19, nor Figure 2, step 34. In said section, line 10, step 18022 seems incorrect. In said section no reference to LL... function as in step (g) of claim 10 has been found. Also, no reference to page and line no. is summarized regarding the limitations of instant claims 11-13.
